

Making Peace Series Part 3: Being a Peacemaker in the 21st Century: What Can I Do? What Can We Do?

Thursday,
December 8
at 6:30 pm

OKLAHOMA
HUMANITIES

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE Humanities

Funding for this program is provided in part by a grant from the Oklahoma Humanities Council (OHC) and the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of OHC or NEH.

Making Peace is a three-part program series concerning peace.

This program will address the feelings of hopelessness from conflicts in society by identifying constructive ways people can be involved in peacemaking.

Presented by Dr. Charles Kimball, Th.D Harvard, History of Religion with specialization in Islamic studies and Christian-Muslim relations.

Norman Public Library Central

225 N. Webster | Norman, Oklahoma 73071 | 405-701-2600 | pioneerlibrarysystem.org/norman